BOOKS RECEIVED.

1. On Diseases of the Liver. By George Budd, M. D., &c. Third Edition. London: Churchill, 1857. 8vo. pp. 496.

[This work, now the standard book of reference on the diseases of which it treats, has been carefully revised, and many new illustrutions of the views of the learned author added in the present edition.

2. Vocal Gymnastics; or, a Guide for Stammerers, and for Public Speakers, and others who suffer from certain Minor Peculiarities of Utterance. With an Appendix of Cases which have been treated upon the Method herein described. By G. F. Urling. London: Churchill, 1857. 16mo. pp. 89.

[This little book affords some very useful hints to aid in remedying this distressing affection, and is altogether free from the secret quackery which other publications on the subject usually contain.]

3. Mémoire sur les Fractures des Membres par Armes a Feu; suivi d'Observations, pour servir à l'Histoire des Blessures par Armes de Guerre. Par le Dr. L. Saurel. Montpellier: Pitrat, 1856. 8vo. pp. 148.

[A very able essay, illustrative of the importance of conservative surgery in the treatment of gun-shot wounds, as shown by the result of cases so managed in the great military hospital at Montpellier.]

4. Du Microscope au point de Vue de ses applications à la Connaissance et au Traitement des Maladies Chirurgicales. Par le Dr. L. Saurel. Paris: Baillière, 1857. 8vo. pp. 148.

5. Soultzbad. Le Bain de Soulzt, près Molsheim (Bas-Rhin). Source Minérale Chloro-Iodo-Bromée. Monographie, par le Dr. E. Eissen. Paris: Masson, 1857. 8vo. pp. 92.

[An excellent hand-book, descriptive of a very important mineral water, the source of which is beautifully situated in the neighbourhood of Strasbourgh, and consequently easy of access to the English invalid.]

6. On Stricture of the Urethra. By Henry Smith, F. R. C. S., &c. London: Churchill, 1857. 8vo. pp. 280.

7. Etude sur l'Anesthésie Locale dans ses applications a l'Art Dentaire, &c., par M. J-B. George. Paris: Labé, 1857. Pamphlet, pp. 31.

8. Elementary Treatise on the Wave Theory of Light. By Humphrey Lloyd, D. D., &c., &c. Second Edition. London: Longmans, 1857. 8vo. pp. 208.

[Dr. Lloyd's Treatise is so well known to the scientific world as scarcely to need our commendation; yet we cannot avoid saying that its value is much augmented by the present edition containing an account of the more important recent discoveries in Physical Optics.]

9. Facts relating to Hospital Nurses. Also, Observations on Training Establishments for Hospital and Private Nurses. By John F. South, Senior Surgeon of St. Thomas' Hospital. London: Richardson, 1857. Pamphlet, pp. 33.

[A plea by the learned author on behalf of the present system of hospital nursing in the splendid institution of which he is the Senior Surgeon.]

10. A Popular Treatise on the Causes and Prevention of Diseases. By S. Fenwick, M. D, &c. Vol. I. Diseases of the Throat and Lungs. London: Churchill, 1857. 12mo. pp. 220.

[We do not like this attempt at popularizing medicine; it savours too much of the plan adopted by quacks for advertising their systems.]

11. General Report upon the Sanitary Condition of the Parish of St. Luke, Chelsea, during the year 1856. By A. W. Barclay, M. D., F.R.C.P., &c. Chelsea: Macmichael, 1857. Pamphlet, pp. 18.

12. The Midland Quarterly Journal of the Medical Sciences, May, 1857. Birmingham: Cornish, Brothers. pp. 192.

[Our new contemporary promises well for future success, and is most creditable to its able conductors.]

13. Scottish Lunacy Commission. Report by Her Majesty's Commissioners appointed to inquire into the state of Lunatic Asylums in Scotland, and the Existing Laws in reference to Lunatics and Lunatic Asylums in that Part of the United Kingdom.
